Choose the right shredder

How to find the shredder that is right for you

Choosing the right shredder is key to a good shredding experience. Use our step by step guide to find the shredder that is right for you.

STEP 1. How many people will use the shredder and where?

NUMBER OF USERS- USER GROUP

1 Personal

1-5 Small / Home Office

5-10 Departmental

10-20+ Large Office/Commercial

Start with number of users and look for the user group. Average business use can vary between 5 and 20 sheets per person per day.

STEP 2. What is the level of security needed for the documents that will be shredded?

SECURITY LEVEL- CUT STYLE

Once you have narrowed your search to a user group, look for the security level/cut style that fits your security needs. See chart.

Higher levels create smaller shreds and provide greater security.

Cut styles are “names” of various security levels.

Security Level* / Cut Style	# of shreds per 8.5" x 11" sheet†	Recommended for:
Level 7: High Security	13000	Top secret or classified documents, company sec ets, government documents
Level 6: Super Micro-Cut	6200	Finance, HR and legal department documents, confidential documents with fine pri
Level 5: Micro-Cut	2000	Documents with personally identifiable information, those related to pricing or cost information (example: price lists, vendor costs, financial analysis eports)
Level 4: Super Cross-Cut	400	Everyday documents with some personally identifiable informatio
Level 3: Cross-Cut (also diamond cut)	200	Everyday documents like emails, draft and final e-ports, extra copies of presentations – this is the minimum level of security recommended for most users
Level 2: Strip-Cut	34 strips	Junk mail, most shipping documents, old documents with expired information

*New international security levels (DIN 66399) established September 1, 2012

†Approximate number of shreds per 8.5" x 11" sheet

STEP 3. Look for the sheet and waste bin capacity combination that meets your needs.

Refers to how many sheets of 20 lb. bond paper used in most offices the shredder can shred at a time.

WASTE BIN CAPACITY

Amount of shredded material the shredder can hold. Expressed in gallons or # of sheets of shredded paper that can fit in the bin before it needs to be emptied.

Additional considerations when choosing a shredder

AUTO FEED VS. MANUAL FEED:

Swingline® shredders are available in two operating types: auto feed and manual feed. Auto feed shreds papers automatically. The shredder recognizes papers in the auto feed tray and continually pulls each sheet through the cutters to shred without your assistance. Manual feed shredders require you to hand feed sheets to be shredded.

ANTI JAM:

Anti-jam technology, including Auto+™, Non-stop Jam Free™ and Jam Stopper®, help protect a shredder against additional wear and tear caused by paper jams. Even with these features, jams may still occur on occasion. Operate every shredder according to manufacturer instructions for best results.

SOUND LEVEL:

Refers to the sound level in decibels that the shredder creates when operating. Look for machines with less than 70 decibels for shared environments to minimize noise.

The Swingline Advantage

Look for these icons to help choose the shredder that is right for you.

EXCLUSIVE TECHNOLOGY

AUTOMATIC JAM CLEARANCE
Automatic jam clearance reverses and re-feeds stuck papers to clear jams and resumes shredding without user intervention.

JAM PREVENTION INDICATOR

JAM STOPPER®

WIDE WIDTH
Extra wide paper entry facilitates shredding of large format sheets.

How to choose a binder

Presentation solution

A reflection of your work, the binder you choose should complement the contents.

- Customization of outside covers and spine
- Inside pockets for additional hand-outs

Organization solution

Whether this is a binder that goes everywhere with you or something you label and put on your shelf for easy reference, it needs to be something you can comfortably use.

- Back mounted rings for fuss-free spine labeling
- Custom Covers for smarter labeling of contents

Storage Solution

Pick a ring size that can hold the maximum number of sheets you need to place in your binder.

- D-ring for larger holding capacity

Sheet Capacity/Ring Size and Type

Pick a ring size that can hold the maximum number of sheets you need to place in your binder. A D-Ring binder actually holds up to 25% more paper in the same space as the round ring equivalent.

Not all whiteboards are created equal

Let us help you determine the right board for your needs!

Which performance factors are most important to you?

1. Initial Cost

When weighing initial cost vs. product performance and lifespan, which best describes you?

MAXIMUM LIFESPAN + PERFORMANCE

VALUE + PERFORMANCE

MOST ECONOMICAL

2. Surface Performance

In a week, how often do you use a whiteboard?

FREQUENTLY – EVERYDAY

OCCASIONALLY – SEVERAL TIMES A WEEK

RARELY – A FEW TIMES A WEEK

3. Time / Maintenance

Some whiteboards require more maintenance than others. How much time do you want to allocate?

MINIMAL MAINTENANCE

OCCASIONAL MAINTENANCE

MAINTAIN REGULARLY

Did You Know

1. If ink remains on the board 24/7, then that is HEAVY usage, even if only changed once a week, such as restaurants.
2. EVERY WHITEBOARD NEEDS CLEANING. The better the surface, the less cleaning required.
3. Porcelain surfaces are ALWAYS magnetic, but Magnetic surfaces are not always porcelain.
4. Board design and frame color aesthetics are often important to match the environment in which they are placed.
5. NOT ALL DRY ERASE MARKERS PERFORM EQUALLY. Some are more difficult to erase than others, which results in Stains and Ghosting. Low Odor, Quartet EnduraGlide[®] markers optimize performance by always providing a bold mark and excellent erase ability.
6. ERASERS SHOULD BE CLEAN! A “dirty eraser” will often spread ink residue all over the surface.
7. Industrial strength cleaning solutions can damage a board’s surface.

Once you’ve selected the color-coded answers that fits your needs, turn the page over to find the right board for you.

Overhead Projectors & Supplies

Overhead Projector Definitions

- Transmissive The most commonly used overhead projector format with the light source positioned in the base under the projection stage. The light is projected upward through the transparency and reflected by the head toward the screen.
Apollo items: 3000, 3002, 3400, 16000, 16002.

- Reflective Excellent for transparency-only presentations, reflective overheads are very lightweight and portable. The light source is positioned in the projection head and projects down toward the stage, which reflects the transparency image back to the head and toward the screen.
Apollo item: 4000.

- Head Type Open, duckbill-type head, recommended for most applications, delivers a slightly brighter light than the closed-head type. Closed-head type provides lens protection from fingerprints and dust and is perfect for school use or for industrial environments.

- Lumens A measurement of light intensity taken at the source of the light. 2,000-4,000 lumens recommended for most transparencies; 4,000+ lumens for detailed, dense-color transparencies, large rooms and uncontrollable environmental lighting areas.

- Lamp Type Standard 3-letter lamp designations as defined by American National Standards Institute (ANSI).
Apollo items: 3000, 3002, 4000, 16000, 16002 – use EYB lamp.
Apollo item: 3400 – uses EVD lamp.

- Stage The clear glass platform from which transparencies are projected. Larger stages accommodate full 8½" x 11" transparency sheets in horizontal or vertical orientation.

- Lamp Changer Allows the user to instantly change lamps by simply flipping a switch, in the event of a lamp blowout. Prevents embarrassing delays in the middle of presentations.
Apollo items: 3000, 3002, 3400, 4000, 16002.

- Lens Element The number of individual elements that make up a projection lens. The greater number of elements, the better the quality of the projected image.

- High/Low Switch Light output control switch that allows the user to use lower lumen output for simple transparency presentations and higher lumen output for color dense transparency slides. Use of the low setting maximizes lamp life.
Apollo items: 3000, 3002, 3400.

Quickly find your proper fit and viewing height

The exclusive SmartFit® system from Kensington takes the guesswork out of installation. This revolutionary patented system allows workstation accessories to be easily customized to users of all shapes and sizes. The result is an accurate set up that maximizes the benefits of products.

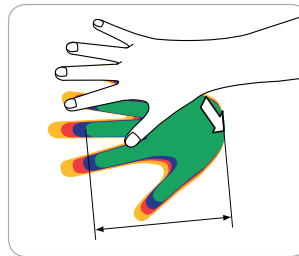

Your personal fit in 3 easy steps

1. Measure – With every SmartFit product, you will receive a hand chart in the box. This hand chart will assist you in finding your specific SmartFit color and customize your fit.

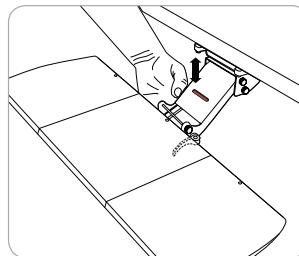

- How do you measure?

With your right wrist on the baseline of the hand chart, lay your entire hand over the diagram. The tip of your middle finger will point to your SmartFit color.

2. Adjust – The next step is to adjust the color wheel on your SmartFit product to your specific color, and you're ready to go.

- Not all SmartFit products have a color wheel; please make sure you read the instructions to understand how to adjust each SmartFit product.

3. Fit – The final step is to validate the fit of your SmartFit product at your work-station. Because we make many different SmartFit products, please refer to the user guide in each product box.
